Test case level: low

	Test case title	Adding BUG type issue to the Jira + project changing
	Test case ID:	TC_1
	Status:	TO DO
		-In the Jira application exists user with data: login: test123.testcase@gmail.com password: test123@1 -In the Jira existing two projects: "TC1" and "TC2"
	The initial conditions:	-Broswer and internet access

Step's number:	Reproduction steps	Result
1	Go to the Jira website of the TC1 project: https://testcases-am.atlassian.net/jira/software/projects/TC1/boards/1	The page is displayed correctly
2	In the filed: "enter e-mail number" put: test123.testcase@gmail.com	The input to enter the password displays
3	In the filed: "enter the password" put: test123@1	The page with the kanban board displays correctly and the users is log in
4	Click the blue "Create" button on the top of the page	Report creating window displays
5	Click the drop-down list below of the project and choose: TC1	User has selected a project type
6	Click the second drop-down list at the page below of the report type and choose: BUG type withe orange icon from the left	User has selected a report type
7	In the thid input from the top enter the summary: "Not working button"	User enetered a summary "Not working button"
8	In the discription field enter the discription: "Button is not workinhg when I am click on it and calculations are not done"	User entered the discripiton of the BUG
9	Choose assign person: Click on the filed with the text "Automaticly" and choose Tester Manualny (assign to me) from the drop-down list.	User assigns the person to the issue
10	Make sure that the reporter person is Tester Manualny, look on the reporter field with star and input. Here should be displayed "Tester Manualny" at input filed if he is not - choose himm from the drop-drown list.	User checked if the Tester Manualny is rerporter or user added Tester Manualny as reporter person.
11	Click the blue "Create" button on the down-right page.	User created an issue (added BUG type to the Jira)
12	Go to the Jira website of the T1 project again: https://testcases-am.atlassian.net/jira/software/projects/TC1/boards/1	The page is displayed correctly, kanban board is showing
13	Look at on the TO DO list on the left of the kanban board and click Not working button task. It is in the grey square box. Make sure that the task had been created	User selected created issue and opened it to make sure that issue had been created.